Endless Summer at TPC

This summer we are thinking outside the box, taking weekly themes and schedules that may seem familiar and revamping them so everyone involved- campers, counselors AND parents- have the opportunity to make even more lasting memories. Your TPC camp staff has worked long and hard to brainstorm ways to enhance the camp experience and it has been decided that camp spirit is the key to achieving this goal. What does this mean exactly? Our definition of spirit is rather broad but every aspect comes together to form what we hope will be an Endless Summer, meaning one that all of us still think of, no matter what season it may be. Spirit means introducing creative ways to honor the themes that allow for creativity and imagination, whether it be through the original activities that the TPC team has cooked up or completing one big art project every week that will test limits and be displayed on Fridays. What it also means is coming together every morning and every afternoon under the tree as a whole camp and having the chance to sing camp songs, watch and perform skits, and simply enjoy feeling as though you are a part of something bigger than you. These are the things that will make the summer endless and we invite you to join the journey. Summer 2017 will mark a new kind of TPC Camp and you don't want to miss out!

Week 1: June 12-16th Walk of Fame (Friday, June 16th Field trip-Movies "Car 3")

Walk of Fame: Your child will feel like a star as they take the stage and perform skits and dance routines with and for their fellow campers. Each child will have their own star and handprint on the TPC Walk of Fame that will be displayed for all to see at the end of the week. The fun doesn't stop there though! On Friday we will honor the week's theme with a trip to the movies to see "Monsters University."

Week 2: June 19th-23rd Adventureland

Adventureland: Get your child ready to embark on a weeklong quest with their groups to find the location of the time capsule that was buried at the end of the previous summer. Campers will complete tasks such as fort building out of various materials, map reading and decoding daily clues throughout this adventure, all the while emphasizing the importance of team unity.

Week 3: June 26th-30th Party in the USA

Party in the USA: This week is all about Red, White and Blue spirit! Each day the campers will compete in a variety of competitions (art, sport, you name it) inspired by these three colors. Fun and not to mention, festive, prizes will be rewarded at the end of each day.

Monday-Wear RED
Tuesday-Wear WHITE
Wednesday-Wear BLUE

Week 5: July 10th-14 Imaginarium (Thursday, July 13th Filed Trip-Exploratorium)

Imaginarium: This week, the camper's creativity rules. Children will have the opportunity to create and venture into imaginary worlds through group activities and art projects that are based off of their own original ideas. Their creativity will continue to be put to the test when we take a trip to the Exploratorium on July 11th. Caution: imaginations may run wild!

Week 6: July 17th-21st TPC Olympics

TPC Olympics: Last year marked the first annual TPC Olympics and this summer we will bring an even BIGGER and BETTER version of those Olympic games to you. This means MORE sport competitions, MORE art competitions and most importantly, MORE spirit competitions. So with that said, Campers take your marks, get set, and go get ready to win those medals of bronze, silver and gold!

Week 7: July 24-28th Carnival Week (Howarth Park Thursday, July 27th)

Carnival Week: This week will be filled with endless games, tasty treats, silly fun and a special guest for all to enjoy. The week will conclude with our very own TPC Carnival!

Week 8: July 31-August 4th Wacky Week

Wacky Week: Long story short, anything goes! The focus is on spirit and encouraging campers to become as creative as possible when dressing up in theme. Those groups who show the most spirit will win spirit points at the end of each day, which will then be calculated to determine a winner at the end of the week.

Mustache Monday- Groups will come together to find a creative way to honor the mustache. Last year a certain tree sported a black mustache and face that the campers helped create at the art table.

Twinsie Tuesday- On Monday the campers will be asked to do the following: Find a friend, plan a similar outfit, arrive at camp on Tuesday dressed in those outfits, and enjoy being a twin/earning spirit points!

Wacky Wednesday- Once again, put your creativity to the test. The opportunities are endless. Campers can come wearing their clothes inside out, backwards, inside out AND backwards, dressed in an old Halloween costume, as a camp counselor, as an alien, as an alien camp counselor... You get the picture.

Tie-dye Thursday- Shirts will be tie-dyed earlier in the week for this day. Kids will come to camp wearing their colorful creations!

Fiesta Friday- Wear your party hats and dancing shoes because rumor has it there will be a fiesta on this day!

Week 9: August 7th-11th Endless Summer (Field Trip-Rebounderz-Thursday, August 10th)

Endless Summer: This final week of summer is when all campers and counselors can come together to celebrate the memories that have been made at TPC camp- memories that like the theme of "Endless Summer," are timeless and unchanging regardless of whether camp is in session or not. The last day of camp will be marked by the filling of our very own TPC time capsule and burying it until it is time for the next summer to begin.
